Mr. S.B. Shetye for the applicant.

Mr. R.S. Apte for the respondents.

CORAM: SMT. RANJANA DESAI, J.

DATED: 6TH OCTOBER, 2005.

P.C.:-

Not on board. Mentioned urgently.

Heard the learned counsel for the parties.

Time to vacate the suit premises has already been extended once. The applicant has again filed this civil application praying that time may be extended by four month. Mr. Apte, the learned counsel appearing for the respondents has strenuously opposed grant of the civil application. He says that sufficient time has already been granted to the applicant and this application is a mischievous application.

In the peculiar facts and circumstances of the case, one month's time is granted to the applicant to vacate the suit premises. It is made clear that no further time will be granted to the applicant. The applicant should make all arrangements to move out of the suit premises within the extended period of one month. The applicant and all adult members of her family shall file usual undertakings in this court within a period of two weeks from today. It is clarified that if the undertakings are not filed within two weeks from today, the stay granted by this court shall stand vacated.

The advocate for the applicant may communicate this order to the advocate for the applicant in the trial court.

Civil application is disposed.
